Rebels: 8

Recap!

As we were resting myrtle
fixed our grievous wounds.

There were more durnees that weren't killed by the murder.

we were pointed to a sealed dreamer door. Possibly for a sleeping pod.

Zedrick Heads Through The

Seal first.

The doors past the Seal were forced open But didn't not
by Adam.

we continue, more doors were forced open.

Viridis finds dwarf tracks. we follow and find a stairway.
continue up.

we descend down a ladder into
the armory.

Zedrick's Halberd was fixed
by a dreamer construct.

Zedrick and myself force
open a door in the armory
we find sabers for Tome which are magic.

leave and Head up To Barracks
and in firmory.

we pass through Barracks
and find the infirmary.

Myrtle investigates dissected bodies and they look to
be aberrations, insectoid
like and forced change
dreamer badits.

Zedrick finds trails with nets.

Scholar was unable to find Cure and is sad about
it. Apparently infection
is at the door when recorded.

Open a storage room and found a corpse

Viridis is like the aberrations.
That are dissected.

Speak with dead on the
corpse.

we return to the hallway
and after baricade.

The door to the main storage area is pushed open about a dwarf sized.

we find officers areas,
control room, and air
control room.

we enter the control room.
Zedrick figured out baricade touched a panel.

air control at halt, water
purify off, security doors locked, lax basin doors unlocked, one blue sleeper bays.

we follow Viridis to air
control and comms room
to find baricade.

They headed down and so did we.

The sleeper bays and area seem more rushed and
the light is faster and Red.

a Red sleeper, pod is covered in fresh with an organism
like breathing and a homicidal
like staring to the north.

The tunnel curves as we continue after.

find the lax chamber room.

There's like 100 faces tracking
us across the room.

found Baricade and they
gouged out their own
eyes.

Viridis grabs the lax
chamber and we see
the light they were
describing.

The dreamers had silver tears coming out of
them and were being
lifted and dead.

we stop seeing the
vision and attempt
to leave and see
fake Zedrick on the other side.
